COMING IN DECEMBER IN CURRENT HISTORY: EAST ASIA

The focus of December's issue swings in the direction of East Asia, where the absence of the cold war has opened new avenues of thinking on security matters for the United States as well as the other principal players in the region. What new constellations of power will emerge? Articles examine the prospects for stability and democracy in Thailand, Cambodia, and the Philippines and their search for a role in one of the most powerful economic regions in the world. Topics scheduled to be covered include:

- Post-Cold War US Policy in East Asia
  BY DON HELLMAN, UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
- Japan as a Regional Power
  BY TAKASHI INOGUCHI, UNIVERSITY OF TOKYO
- Peace in Unity in the Koreas?
  BY HONG KIM, WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY
- CAMBODIA
  BY CRAIG ETCHESON, STRATEGIC IMPLEMENTATION INTERNATIONAL
- Thailand
  BY JOSEPH WRIGHT, AUTHOR OF THE BALANCING ACT: A HISTORY OF MODERN THAILAND
- The Philippines
  BY DAVID WURFEL, UNIVERSITY OF WINDSOR
