FREEDMEN'S ORGANIZATION

AZTLAN—International Journal of Chicano Studies Research

is an independent, biannual, interdisciplinary, peer-refereed journal that serves as a forum for research and essays related to the Mexican experience. The Journal's focus is on critical analysis, research, theory, and methodology as they relate to Mexicans as a group, in the United States, and in Mexico.

AZTLAN

invites scholarly papers and rigorous, thorough, original research and analysis in the social sciences and the arts. Scholarly and scientific papers of up to fifty pages in length, as well as book reviews, are welcome for consideration. All manuscripts are reviewed by the Journal's Editorial Board and by ad hoc reviewers with expertise in the author's field of interest. The review process is performed free of author identification. Publication is determined by a majority of positive evaluations. The Journal does not accept previously published material.

Address all manuscripts and inquiries to: Editors, Aztlán Journal, Chicano Studies Research Center, University of California, 405 Hilgard Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90024. Books for review should be addressed to the Book Review Editor at the same address. Five typewritten, double-spaced, clean copies of the manuscript must be submitted. Include a large, stamped, self-addressed envelope if you want your manuscript to be returned.
