Aztlán is an interdisciplinary, refereed journal dedicated to scholarly research relevant to or informed by the Chicano experience. First published in 1970 and still the premier journal of Chicano studies, Aztlán is issued twice a year. Aztlán welcomes submissions in the humanities, social sciences, and arts. We also accept artwork for the color cover.

Extensive, detailed instructions on submitting manuscripts to Aztlán can be viewed at our website (see below). Briefly, contributors should submit three hard copies to Managing Editor, UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center, 193 Haines Hall, Los Angeles, California 90095-1544. Send books for review to the Book Review Editor at the same address.

To get monthly e-mail announcements about Aztlán (such as the contents of the next issue, upcoming events, calls for papers, or related publications), please e-mail press@chicano.ucla.edu.

For more information about Aztlán, see the CSRC Press web page at www.chicano.ucla.edu or send an e-mail to press@chicano.ucla.edu.