Aims and Scope: Drawing on the expertise of the Centre for Arab Unity Studies, a long-established and highly respected research institute and academic publisher, Contemporary Arab Affairs is a multidisciplinary, peer-reviewed journal intended to provide a unique window onto critical Arab academic production and discourse in the Arab world—sharing the analysis, insights and informed points of view of Arab scholarship with a wider international audience. A major facet is to afford access, via high-quality translations, to authentic Arabic-language insights and informed points of view of Arab scholarship with a wider international audience. The editors or the Centre for Arab Unity Studies do not necessarily represent those of the Centre for Arab Unity and encouragement of informed debate is intended.

Subscription and advertising enquiries should be sent to Contemporary Arab Affairs at: Taylor & Francis, 4 Park Square, Milton Park, Abingdon, Oxfordshire OX14 4RN, UK. Tel: +44 (0)207 017 6000. Fax: +44 (0)207 017 6336. E-mail: enquries@tandf.co.uk. Web: tandfonline.com

Contemporary Arab Affairs is subject to a peer review process and is published four times a year in January, April, July and October. © 2014 The Centre for Arab Unity Studies.

Instructions for Authors

Preparing and submitting your manuscript

Before preparing your submission, please visit the Contemporary Arab Affairs homepage at www.tandfonline.com/rcaa for full instructions for authors, including a complete style guide. Submitted manuscripts are subject to peer review at the discretion of the Editorial Office. In order to maintain anonymity during any refereeing process, authors are requested to refrain from, or keep to a minimum, self-referencing.

Papers accepted become the copyright of the Journal, unless otherwise specifically agreed. There are no page charges in Contemporary Arab Affairs.

Authors should bear in mind that they are addressing an international audience. Manuscripts that do not conform to the requirements listed below will not be considered for publication or returned to their authors. Submissions will be screened anonymously by two referees.

Manuscripts should be sent to the Editor, Contemporary Arab Affairs, Centre for Arab Unity Studies, Beit Al-Nahda Building, Bani Street, Hamra, Beirut 2014 2407, Lebanon (email: info@caus.org.lb). Please make sure that your contact details are clearly visible on the outside of all packages you send to the editorial office. Articles should bear the title of the contribution, name(s) of the author(s) and the address where the work was carried out. Contributions should be in English but where short phrases or quotations are given in the original language they should be accompanied by a Roman transcription, the United States Library Congress schemes being used wherever possible. Each article should be accompanied by an abstract of 100–150 words on a separate sheet, and a short note of biographical details. The full postal address of the author should be included. All pages should be numbered. Articles should not exceed 5,000 words. Footnotes to the text should be avoided wherever possible.

Tables and captions to illustrations. Tables must be typed out on separate sheets and not included as part of the text. The captions to illustrations should be gathered together and also typed out on a separate sheet. Tables and figures should be numbered sequentially and referred to in the text. Captions should include keys to symbols.

Figures. Figures should be submitted in electronic format, as JPEG, TIFF or GIF files. Pictorial illustrations must be at a resolution of no less than 300 dpi/ppi and line diagrams at a resolution of no less than 120 dpi/ppi.

References should be indicated in the typescript by giving the author’s name, with the year of publication in parentheses. If several papers by the same author and from the same year are cited, a, b, c, etc. should be put at the end of the year of publication. The references should be listed in full at the end of the paper in Harvard format.

Titles of journals should not be abbreviated. A guide to the Harvard reference style can be found on the journal’s website through the following links:

• Reference style information: Reference
• Reference style information: Quick Reference

If you have any questions about references or formatting your article, please contact authors@tandf.co.uk

Copyright.
Authors retain many rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policies, which can be found at http://www.tandfonline.com/currentpolicy.aspx. It is a condition of publication that authors vest or licence copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in the Centre for Arab Unity Studies. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication without prior permission from Taylor & Francis, provided that acknowledgement is given to the Journal as the original source of publication, and that Taylor & Francis is notified so that our records show that its use is properly authorised. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
