California History is the top-flight historical journal of California. As such, it is committed to publishing well researched, thoughtfully argued, pieces that go well beyond a purely descriptive narrative. Published quarterly, the journal accepts electronic submissions year-round through the University of California Press’s Reprints and Permissions web page.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES
Length: Manuscripts, including endnotes, must not exceed 14,000 words.
Abstract: All articles submissions must be accompanied by an abstract no longer than 500 words.
Formatting: All text, including quotations and endnotes, should be prepared in double-spaced typescript according to The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press). Because submissions are evaluated anonymously, the author’s name should appear only on the title page. Please provide your full address, including e-mail, in all correspondence.

THE CALIFORNIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY
The California Historical Society is a statewide membership-based organization designated by the Legislature as the state historical society. The California Historical Society inspires and empowers Californians to make the past a meaningful part of their contemporary lives.
