

Appendix B: Sample Statements to Challenge Judgements

1558

Heinz/Druggist

1559

- 1560 • Do you agree that the druggist has to make a living?
- 1561 • And do you accept that Heinz broke into the druggist's store?
- 1562 • And do you accept that he stole from him?

1563

-
- 1564 • Do think that Heinz should try to save his wife's life?
 - 1565 • And do you agree that he tried to get the money together
 - 1566 • And do you accept that Heinz tried to negotiate with the druggist

Trolley

1567

- 1568 • Do you accept that five people would have died if Paul didn't push the man?
- 1569 • And this man is the only way available to stop the trolley? (Paul does not weigh 1570 enough)
- 1571 • Do you agree that in stopping the trolley Paul saved the lives of five people?

Cannibal

1572

- 1573 • The body had been donated for research, it was to be discarded the next day. You 1574 must agree then that it had obviously fulfilled its purpose?
- 1575 • Do you accept that the body was already dead?
- 1576 • And do you accept that there was no risk of disease?

Incest

1577

- 1578 • Do you not agree that any concerns regarding reproductive complications are eased by 1579 their using of two forms of contraception?
- 1580 • And do you accept that they are both consenting adults, and that they both consented
1581 and enjoyed it?

1582

- And do you concede that nobody else was affected by their actions?