ARTICLES

- “Democracy Is Not for Everyone”: Nationalist Homophobia in Eastern Europe and Opposition to Liberal Democracy in the European Union
  Piotr Żuk and Paweł Żuk

- The Shades of Communism: The Basis of Political Divisions in the Republic of Macedonia
  Trajche Panov and Dane Taleski

- Moving Forward or Turning Back? Slovak Parties and the Future of the EU
  Jan Kovář

- Legitimation of Private Property in the Means of Production in Ukraine: Dynamics and Factors
  Volodymyr Reznik and Oleksandr Reznik

- Empire Loyalism and Nationalism in Ukraine and Ireland: Comparing the Sources of Conflict in the Donbas and Ulster
  Taras Kuzio

- The Strange Case of Welfare Chauvinism in Eastern Europe
  Marko Grdešić

- Combating the Threats of Cybercrimes in Russia: Evolution of the Cybercrime Laws and Social Concern
  Roman Dremliuga, Olga Dremliuga, and Pavel Kuznetsov

- Direct Actions in the Czech Environmental Movement
  Arnošt Novák

- Social Antinomies of Linguistic Consciousness: Russian Blogosphere Debates Crimea’s Incorporation
  Elena Kravchenko and Tatiana Valiulina

- The Disappearance of Political Jokes in Post-Socialist Slovenia
  Primož Mlačnik and Peter Stankovič

  Srdan M. Jovanović

The acknowledgment of funding and support for this study by Transformation, Integration and Globalization Economic Research (TIGER) at the Kozminski University in Warsaw, Poland was omitted from the published article. This article was written as part of a research project financed by the Polish National Science Centre, decision number: DEC2015/09/B/HS4/01966.