CONTENTS

GLOBAL PROGRESS REPORT, 2013

- 3 The Governance Gap Joshua Lustig and Alan Sorensen
Globalization, slowed by advanced economies' malaise, is still outpacing efforts to manage its risks and byproducts. Better multilateral coordination is needed to narrow the gap.

- 4 How Is the World Doing?
Current History's annual report card on international trends.

POLITICS

- 7 Why the World Should Worry About Europe's Disarray Jan Zielonka
The European Union's disintegration would disrupt the global economy, set back the spread of liberal laws and norms, and generate insecurity on the continent and beyond.

ECONOMY

- 13 The Inequality Challenge Uri Dadush and Kemal Derviş
Economic inequality in many nations, including the United States, has reached levels that create resentment and impair growth. Fourth in a series on inequality around the world.

DEVELOPMENT

- 20 The Mixed News on Poverty Anirudh Krishna
The numbers of people who escape poverty attract more attention than those who are still falling into poverty, or who remain at risk of doing so.

SECURITY

- 26 The Growing Threat of Maritime Conflict Michael T. Klare
Coveting offshore oil and gas riches, China and other states are showing a willingness to deploy naval vessels to assert their claims and challenge other nations' ships.

RESOURCES

- 33 Climate Change and Food Security Bruce A. McCarl, Mario A. Fernandez, Jason P.H. Jones, Marta Wlodarz
Shifting temperature and rainfall patterns are having far-reaching and disruptive effects on agriculture, helping some crops and regions while severely damaging others.

BOOKS

- 38 Leagues of Nations Joshua Lustig
A new book traces the fitful evolution of international order and institutions from the Congress of Vienna to the advent of humanitarian interventions.

THE MONTH IN REVIEW

- 39 November 2012
An international chronology of events in November, country by country, day by day.
