CONTENTS

- 123 The Struggle for Control of Pakistan's Fragile Democracy. Umair Javed
Nawaz Sharif's latest fall from power was not just another instance of military meddling. An increasingly assertive judiciary has shifted the nation's unstable balance of power.
- 129 Bangladesh Copes With the Rohingya Crisis By Itself. Navine Murshid
A massive refugee influx spawned by brutal ethnic cleansing in neighboring Myanmar has placed a heavy burden on Bangladesh. Little help has been forthcoming from world powers.
- 135 Nepal's Towering Climate Adaptation Challenges. Andrea J. Nightingale
Nepal has taken steps to prepare for the impact of climate change in the Himalayas, but assistance may not be reaching the most vulnerable. Seventh in a series on climate adaptation around the world.
- 142 China's South Asian Miscalculation. Raffaello Pantucci
China's undisguised disdain for India is stirring up a rival with the motivation and ability to disrupt Beijing's ambitious scheme to build a web of trade corridors and alliances throughout the region.
- PERSPECTIVE
- 148 Rising Religious Intolerance in South Asia. Neeti Nair
Whether in India, Pakistan, or Myanmar, governments have failed to protect minorities, and too often politicians have pandered to agitators stirring up sectarian hatred.
- BOOKS
- 151 India's Turbulent Ascent Sumit Ganguly
India has emerged onto the global stage after decades of adherence to strategic nonalignment and protectionist trade rules limited its influence. But triumphalism is premature.
- 154 Living the Pious Dream in Lahore Joshua Lustig
A rising middle class in Pakistan is striving to reconcile aspirations for a modern lifestyle with a desire for a deeper embrace of Islam as a guide to everyday ethics.
- FROM THE ARCHIVES
- 158 India's Economic Liberalization; Pakistan at Fifty Shalendra D. Sharma and Samina Ahmed
Excerpts from Current History essays on major milestones, published two decades ago.
- THE MONTH IN REVIEW
- 160 February 2018
An international chronology of events in February, country by country, day by day.
