CURRENT HISTORY

The Monthly Magazine of World Affairs

---- FOR READING TODAY ----
---- FOR REFERENCE TOMORROW ----

For every intelligent reader Current History presents information that cannot be found elsewhere in such concise, usable form. In the Document section you will find the complete and official texts of all important treaties and agreements: The North Atlantic Treaty, The Constitution for Western Germany; the Wedemeyer Report; Charter of the Allied High Commission for Western Germany.

The Chronology is a 20-page accurate, day-by-day account of events in all countries of the world. It serves as a key to masses of reference material and illustrates the pattern of events in world history.

In articles of readable length, the significant controversies are discussed each month by economists, historians, political scientists, and experts in numerous fields. Recent studies include: The Soviet Federation by Julian Towster, Columbia University; Germany, Spring, 1949 by Sidney B. Fay, Harvard University; Pressure on the Pound by Alzada Comstock, Mount Holyoke College; Makers of Modern China by Norman D. Palmer, University of Pennsylvania; Strategy and The Atlantic Pact by Donald W. Mitchell, Rutgers University; The White Paper and China by Richard W. Van Alstyne, University of Southern California.
