

CURRENT HISTORY—PART II.

The Historians' Chronicle of the World

By the Board of Current History Associates

PERIOD ENDED AUGUST 9, 1926

THE OUTSTANDING EVENTS OF THE MONTH

ALBERT BUSHNELL HART
Harvard University 936

INTERNATIONAL EVENTS—War Debts That Have Been Cancelled—American View That Considerable Part of Allied Obligations Have Already Been Wiped Out Hotly Contested—Anglo-French Debt Agreement Signed—Steps Toward an Economic Locarno

JAMES THAYER GEROULD,
Princeton University 937

THE UNITED STATES—$1,000,000 Spent in Illinois Primaries—President Coolidge's Political Plans—Farmers' Attack on Congress and Administration for Failure to Provide Relief—Coast Guards Involved in Prohibition Scandal—Nation's Continued Prosperity

WILLIAM MACDONALD,
Yale University 944

MEXICO AND CENTRAL AMERICA—Progress in Settling Claims Against Mexico—Economic Situation Favorable—American Scientists Study Disease in Nicaragua—The United States Concludes Treaty With Panama—Cuban War Claims Presented

CHARLES W. HACKETT,
University of Texas 950

SOUTH AMERICA—Chile and Peru Seeking Tacna-Arica Accord—The United States Aiding the Cause of Peace—Growth of Financial Stability—Argentine Congress Convened—Brazil's Industrial Crisis—Peru's 105th Anniversary of Independence

HARRY T. COLLINGS,
University of Pennsylvania 952

THE BRITISH EMPIRE—Britain's Enormous Losses Through Strike—Estimated Cost to Industries of £150,000,000—Election Campaign in Canada—New Zealand's Prosperity—Indian Credit Improved

RALSTON HAYDEN and
JAMES K. POLLOCK JR.,
University of Michigan 955

FRANCE AND BELGIUM—Poincaré Forms Coalition Government—Briand and Herriot Ministries Fall—Poincaré Introduces Drastic Stabilization Measures—Moroccan Treaty Ratified by France and Spain—Belgian Parliament Makes King Temporary Financial Dictator.

CARL BECKER,
Cornell University 959

GERMANY AND AUSTRIA—Germany Regaining Her Former Prestige—Democratic Party Split—Payment of Reparations—Growth of Steel Trust—Criticism of League Control in Austria—New Trade Agreements Advocated

HARRY J. CARMAN,
Columbia University 962

ITALY—Italian People Under New Fascist Discipline—Decree Eliminates All Non-Fascist Activities—New Association to Aid Exportation—Mussolini Defines His Aims—Compares Italy to United States

ELOISE ELLERY,
Vassar College 966

EASTERN EUROPE AND THE BALKANS—Bulgarian Bandits Disturb Balkan Peace—King Boris Seeks a Wife—Polish Executive Wins Increased Power—Czech Government Insures Workers—Press Defies Rumanian Government—Albanian Border Treaty

FREDERIC A. OGG,
University of Wisconsin 969

RUSSIA AND NATIONS OF NORTHERN EUROPE—Russia Loses Dzerjinski's Driving Force—Death of President of the Supreme Economic Council and Former Head of the Cheka—Government Orders 10 Per Cent. Reduction of Manufactured Goods—Stalin Quells Internal Party Strife—Industrial Production Increases—New Estonian Cabinet—Lithuania Fears Polish Attack

ARTHUR B. DARLING,
Yale University 972

OTHER NATIONS OF EUROPE—Leaders of Spanish Revolt Heavily Fined—Da Costa Régime in Portugal Overthrown by General Carmona—Prohibition Campaign in Norway—Denmark and Poland Sign Arbitration Treaty—Many International Gatherings in Sweden

JOHN MARTIN VINCENT, and MILTON OFFUTT,
Johns Hopkins University 976

TURKEY AND THE NEAR EAST—Plotters Against Kemal Put to Death—Turkey's Economic Progress—Political Situation Quiet in Egypt—The French War in Syria—Transjordan Premier Resigns—Death of Gertrude Bell—Soviet Accused of Causing Revolt in Persia

ALBERT HOWE LYBYER,
University of Illinois 980

THE FAR EAST—Chinese Customs Conference Suspends—General Wu's Forces Defeated—Continuance of the Canton-Hongkong Strike—Control of the International Mixed Courts—Retrenchment Causes Riots in Japan

QUINCY WRIGHT,
and LEONARD D. WHITE,
University of Chicago 985