

Sidney B. Fay

WHY not join the Current History Circle regularly? By doing so, you will always feel prepared to discuss intelligently political questions as well as other national or international problems.

CURRENT HISTORY Magazine presents history in the making of 55 nations each month. No other magazine in any language offers such a variety and impressive volume of authentic contemporary happenings.

U. S. Senator Hiram Johnson

Fourteen distinguished American historians carefully select and accurately interpret the world's events for each issue.

If you like this issue, you will like succeeding ones
as well or better.

No Editorials—Impartial—Unbiased

4 Months' Trial Offer for $1

Send This Coupon

CURRENT HISTORY, FEB., 1929
229 West 43rd St., New York City:
Find enclosed (or send bill) One Dollar.
Send magazine for 4 months to Name.....

Address.....

H. Wickham Steed

ADMINISTRATOR OF THE DAWES PLAN

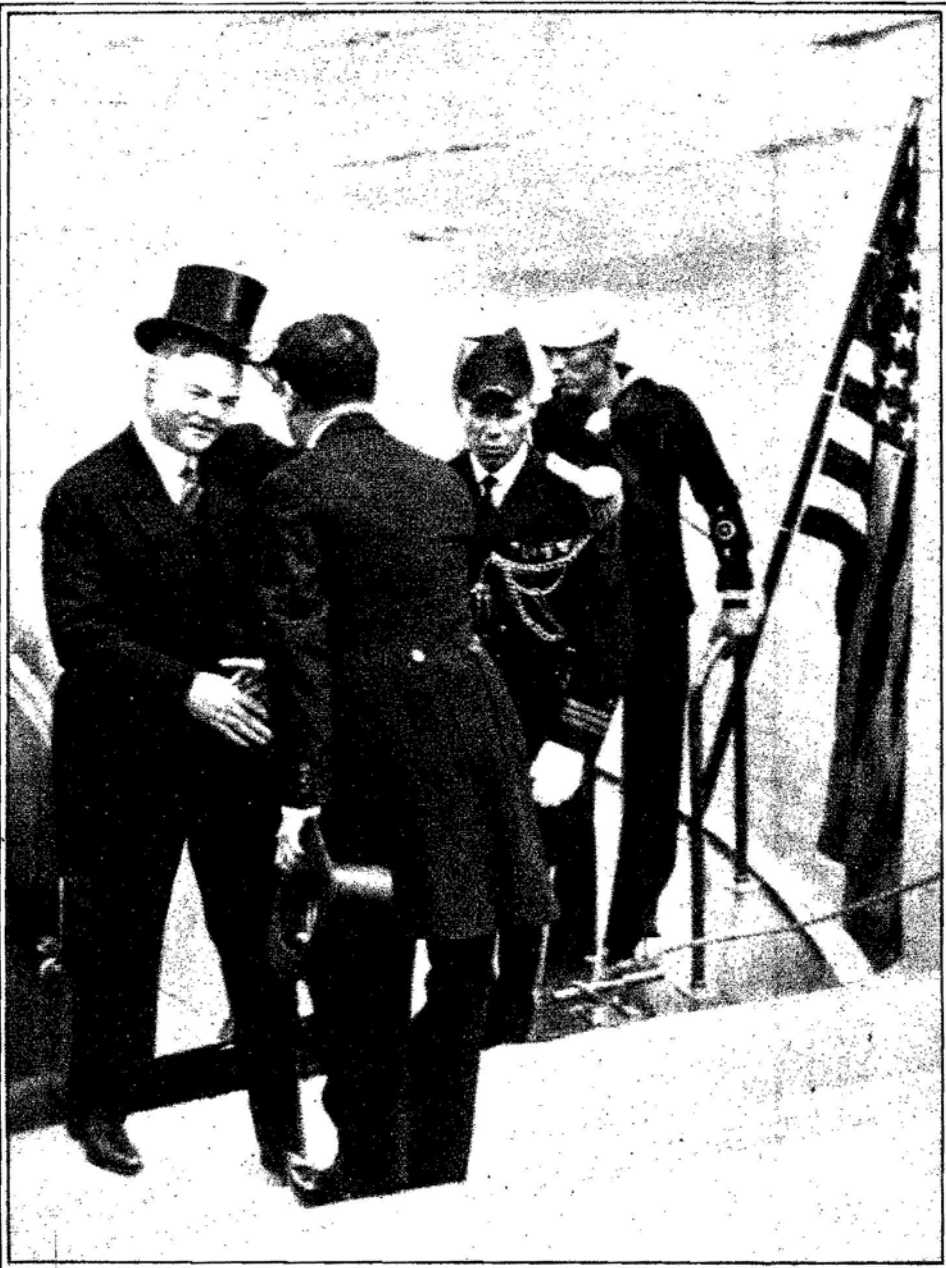

SEYMOUR PARKER GILBERT

The Agent General for Reparation Payments. (An Account of his Career Appears Elsewhere in This Magazine)

Underwood

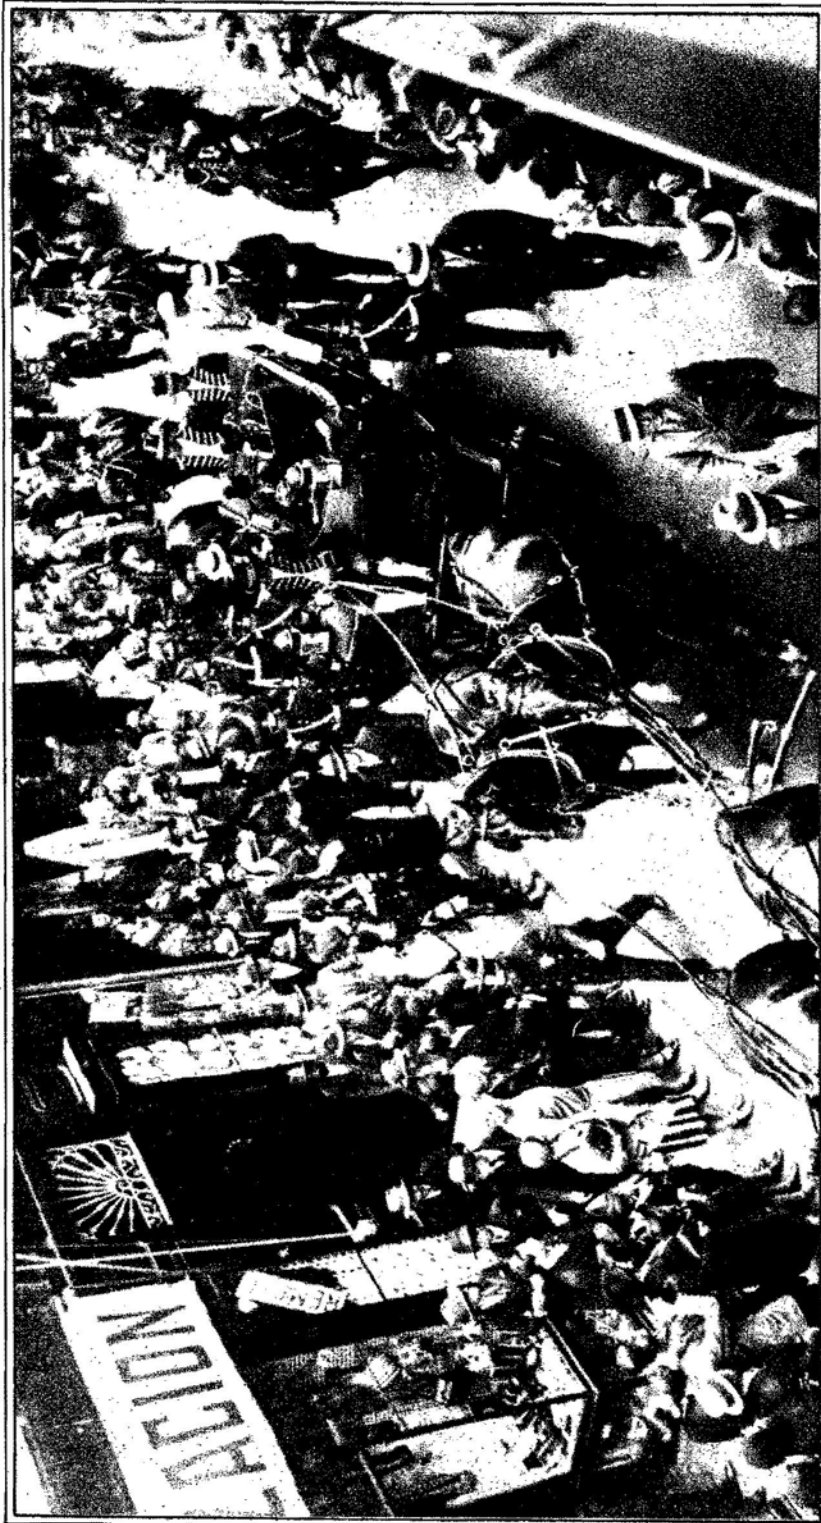

Pictures in Rotogravure

MR. HOOVER'S SOUTH AMERICAN TRIP

THE PRESIDENT-ELECT ARRIVES IN PERU
A Representative of the Peruvian Government Greeting Mr. Hoover on Landing at Callao
Times White World

MR. HOOVER IN THE PERUVIAN CAPITAL

PROCESSION THROUGH THE STREETS OF LIMA
The Scene When the President-elect of the United States Was Welcomed by Cheering Crowds. Seated Next to Mr. Hoover in the First Carriage Is President Leguia of Peru
Times Wide World

KING GEORGE V AND HIS HEIR

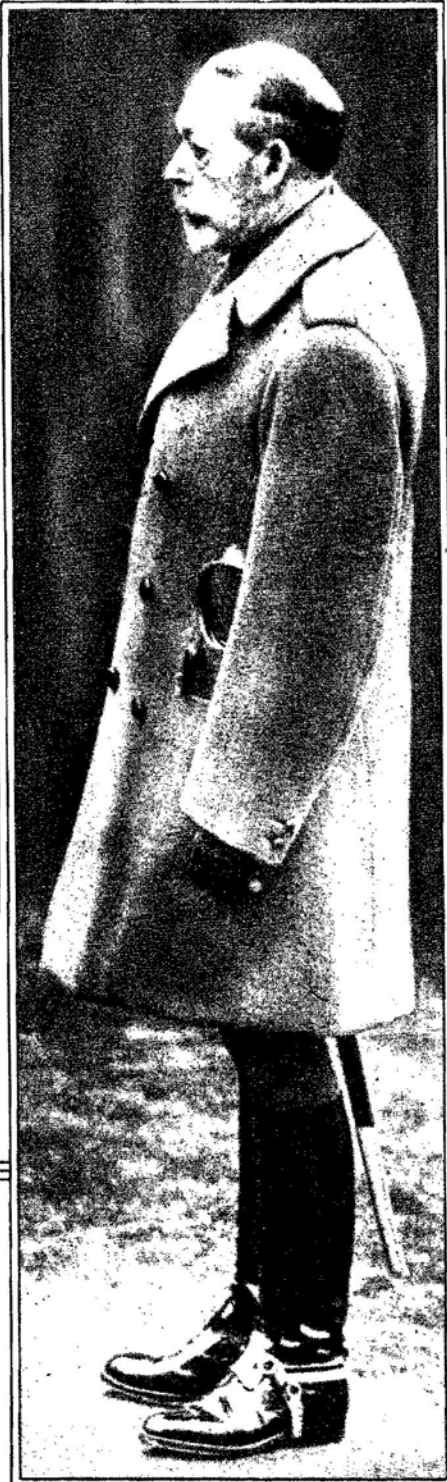

THE PRINCE OF WALES
A Recent Studio Photograph of the Heir to the British Throne

© F. A. Swaine

BEFORE THE KING TOOK SICK
His Last Public
Appearance Before
His Illness—Standing
Bareheaded in Front of the Cenotaph in London on Armistice Day

KING GEORGE'S ILLNESS

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

The Royal Residence in London,
Where at This Writing the King
Still Lies Seriously Ill

ROYAL WARRANT

THE KING HAS PASSED A QUIETER NIGHT. THOUGH THE ANXIETY CONCERNING
THE HEART MUST CONTINUE,
THE IMPROVEMENT NOTED
LAST EVENING IS SO FAR SATISFACTORILY MAINTAINED

(SIGNED) STANLEY HEWETT
BARON OF PENN.

10.30. A.M.
4TH DECEMBER, 1928.

DOCTORS' REPORT
One of the Bulletins
Posted Outside Buckingham Palace Showing the Condition of the Royal Patient

LONDON SYMPATHIZERS
Crowd Outside
Buckingham Palace
Watching the Ceremony of Changing the Guard

Underwood

THE PRIMATE OF ALL ENGLAND

THE NEW ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY

The Most Rev. Cosmo Gordon Lang in the principal seat in the Chapter House after his enthronement as the ninety-fifth Archbishop of Canterbury. In his new position he signs himself "Cosmo Cantuar" Pacific & Atlantic

CANTERBURY GREETES THE PRIMATE
The Archbishop being received at the Old Gate of the city by the Sheriff and the Deputy Mayor
Times Wide World

MEDIATORS IN THE BOLIVIA-PARAGUAY DISPUTE

THE ARBITRATION COMMITTEE OF THE PAN-AMERICAN CONFERENCE

Photographed while in session in Washington (from left to right): Manuel Foster (Chile), Gurgel do Ameral (Brazil), Victor Martua (Peru), Charles Evans Hughes (the United States) and Orestes Ferrara (Cuba). Standing: P. L. Boal, secretary, and Benjamin Cohen, interpreter

Times Wide World

GENERAL ITALO BALBO

One of the four founders of the Fascist Party in Italy and Minister of Aviation under Mussolini, who recently visited the United States

Bettini

◆
EUROPEAN PERSONALI-TIES IN THE NEWS
◆

MARSHAL CADORNA

Italian Commander-in-Chief from the time Italy entered the World War till the defeat of Caporetto,
who died on Dec.

21, 1928

PRINCE OTTO

Son of Karl, the last Austro-Hungarian Emperor, and former Empress Zita, with his sister, Princess Elizabeth. A movement is on foot in Hungary to restore the Habsburg monarchy and put Otto on the throne

Underwood

MARSHAL PILSUDSKI

A new portrait of the Polish Dictator

Underwood

AUGUSTO TURATI

Secretary General of the Fascist Party, considered in some quarters the most likely successor to Mussolini

Acme

WILHELM MIKLAS
The new President of the Austrian republic
Times Wide World

AN UNUSUAL PHOTOGRAPH OF DIPLOMATS IN DEBATE

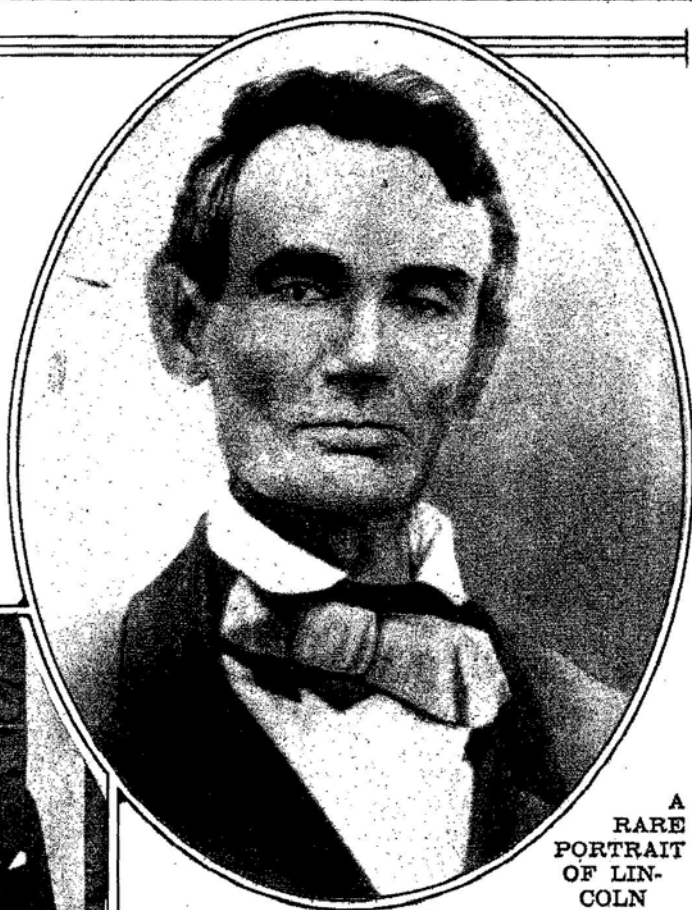

DURING THE MEETING OF THE LEAGUE COUNCIL AT LUGANO

Sir Austen Chamberlain, the British Foreign Secretary, arguing a point with Dr. Stresemann, the German Foreign Minister, at his right in the background, while Aristide Briand, the French Foreign Minister, at the extreme right, and other diplomats listen. The photograph was taken while the statesmen were smoking their cigars after luncheon at the Hotel Splendide.

Pacific & Atlantic

FIGURES IN THE AMERICAN SCENE

A RARE PORTRAIT OF LIN-COLN

Taken When He was a Lawyer at Springfield, Ill., and Given to One of His Friends,
W. H. Murray, by W. H.
Herndon
in 1884.

The original is a daguerrectype

© Ewing Galloway

NICHOLAS LONGWORTH
Speaker of the House of Representatives Opening the Seventy-first Session of Congress
Acme

HENRY FORD

A New Photograph of the Automobile Manufacturer
Who Has Recently Added
30,000 Workers to the 150,000 Already Employed in His Plants so as to Reduce the Number of Work Days
to Five and at the Same Time Increase Production

Underwood.

RULERS OF TROUBLED COUNTRIES

KING AMANULIAH AND QUEEN THOURAYA OF AFGHANISTAN

Who, at this writing, are confronted with a serious rebellion among a section of their subjects

Times Wide World.

PREMIER JULIU MANIU

Who has recently become head of the Rumanian Government after a bloodless revolution, greeting Queen Marie in Bucharest at the celebration of the anniversary of the union of Transylvania, Bukowina and Bessarabia with Rumania

Times Wide World.

ROYAL LADIES OF EUROPE

THE QUEEN OF SPAIN
And Her Daughters Walking in Hyde Park, London
Acme

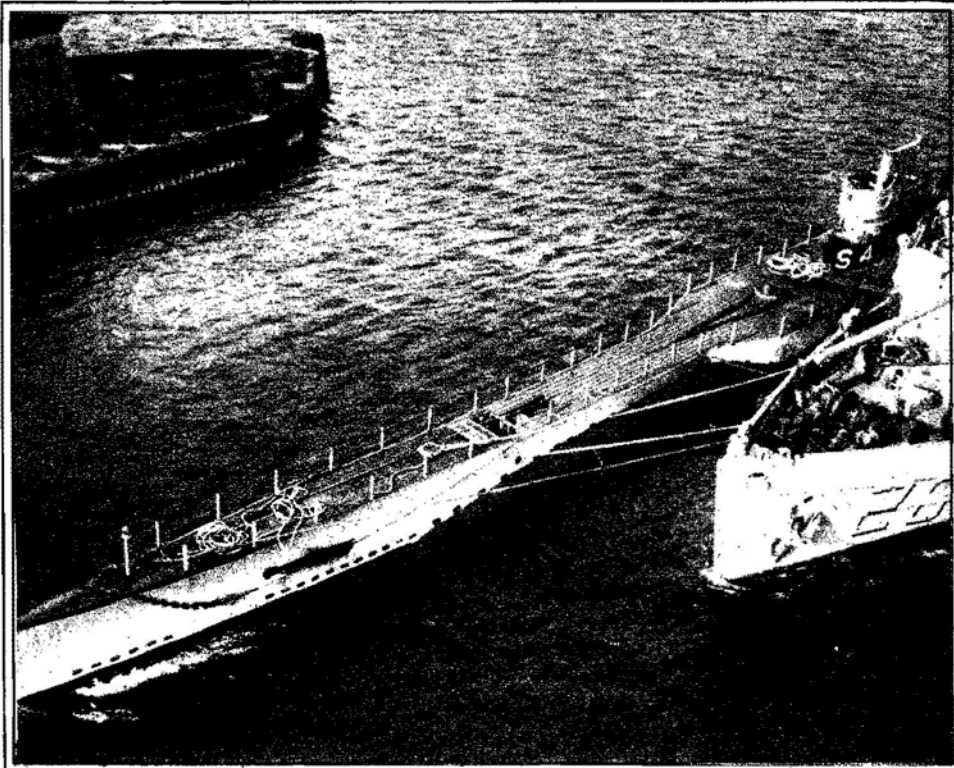

ALBANIAN KING'S SISTERS
The Princesses Morey de Rahie, Nafii Kryezin and Mahid Photographed during a Recent Visit to Vienna
Times Wide World

PRINCESS ILEANA OF RUMANIA
In the Uniform of a Naval Officer
Times Wide World

THE S-4 IN TESTS FOR UNDERSEA SAFETY DEVICES

SUBMARINE THAT WAS SUNK AND RAISED

The S-4, Which Was Rammed by a Coast Guard
Destroyer and Subsequently Raised and Reconditioned,
Being Towed to the Testing Ground off Block Island to Be Submerged There and Tested for Undersea Safety Devices

Times Wide World

"ARTIFICIAL LUNG"

Containing Oxygen, Which Is Worn by a Sailor When Leaving a Submerged Submarine Through the "Escape Hatch" Shown in the Photograph

Acme

THE FIRST SUCCESSFUL AIRPLANE FLIGHT

ORVILLE WRIGHT'S FEAT

The famous aviator standing beside the memorial which now marks the place at Kitty Hawk, N. C., where on Dec. 17, 1903, he made the first successful flight in an airplane designed by him and his brother Wilbur. At the right are Senator Hiram Bingham and Miss Amelia Earhart

Times Wide World.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Orville Wright with Lord Thomson, Air Minister in Ramsay MacDonald's Labor Government, at the celebration at Dayton, Ohio, of the twenty-first anniversary of the Kitty Hawk flight

Times Wide World.

THE BYRD EXPEDITION

PREPARING FOR THE SOUTH POLE.

An Informal Conference on the Larsen: Commander Byrd Studies the Maps of the Antarctic Ice With Some of His Associates. In the Group Are Dean Smith, Harold I. June, Alton Parker, Bernt Belchen, Commander Byrd and Richard E. Brophy.

Both Photographs © The New York Times Co. and The St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

COMMANDER RICHARD E. BYRD

With Captain Oscar Nilsen of the Whaler Larsen on Which the Leader of the South Pole Expedition Journeyed From the United States.

DEVASTATION BY FLOOD AND EARTHQUAKE

THE EARTHQUAKE IN CHILE

Some of the Damage Caused by the Earthquake Which Destroyed the Town of Talca and Surrounding Area in Chile, Where More Than 250 Persons Were Killed and Over 600 Badly Injured

Acme

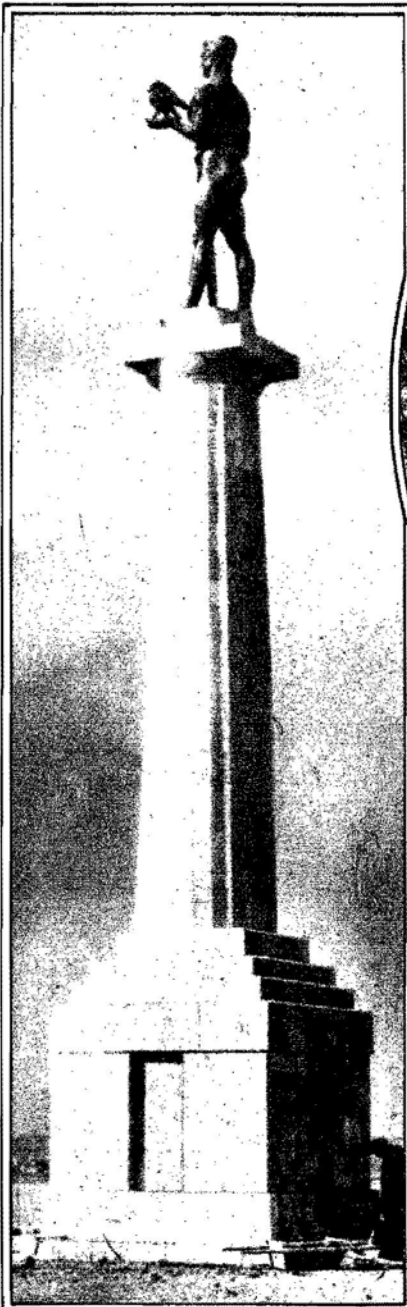

FLANDERS FIELDS UNDER WATER

The Floods at Termonde After the Storms Which Inundated Large Portions of Belgium and Holland

Times Wide World

STATUES OF HEROES OF ROMANCE AND HISTORY

COLOSSAL BRONZE FIGURE OF VICTORY

Designed by Mestrovitch and Erected on the Slopes of the Old Turkish Fortress at Belgrade as a Yugoslav National Monument

Acme

JOAN OF ARC,
The New Statue at Lyons, France

Times Wide World

HAMLET
A Monument of the Legendary Prince at Elsinore, Denmark, Dedicated as a National Memorial by the Citizens of the Town

Times Wide World

