Current History. . . is a monthly magazine offering objective scholarly discussions of vital areas and topics relating to national and international affairs. Each issue focuses on a particular topic and includes:

7 or 8 articles, exploring the political, economic and social aspects of the problem area. The articles are written by leading historians, economists, diplomats and governmental specialists.

Current documents, often complete, original texts of important treaties, agreements, speeches and diplomatic notes, to provide documentary records.

Book reviews on new books in the fields of history, international affairs, economics and social sciences.

Charts and maps to support and illustrate the text.

The "Month in Review," a day-by-day record of the month's news—the only who, what, where and when index published monthly in the U.S.

Current History Annual 1971 covers the events of 1970 country by country and day by day, from Afghanistan to Zambia. A person and subjects index makes it easy to identify names and to find the dates of the important events of the year. Students, teachers, researchers and other concerned citizens have discovered that the Current History Annual is a useful and inexpensive review of the year's events. Libraries are pleased with this brief key to the world's news.

Current History Binder is an inexpensive, yet sturdy hard cover binder in which 12 issues and the Annual can be easily inserted and protected for permanent reference.
