EDITORS' NOTES

This is a bittersweet moment for the Federal Sentencing Reporter. After thirty-six years, this is the final issue to be published by our friends at the University of California Press. While FSR editors are excited and optimistic about the journal's future, we will miss working with the team at UC Press. None of those involved in the 1988 launch of the journal remain part of its day-to-day operations on either the FSR or UCP side, but we are all indebted to those pioneers and believe that the world of sentencing is better and richer for their efforts.

The FSR editors are grateful to David Famiano and Rebecca Simon for their terms of leadership at UC Press. We also appreciate the hard work of our project editors over the years, especially our current editorial magician Amy Jo Woodruff. Finally, we do not know how FSR could have endured without the wisdom, friendship, and patience of Cheryl Owen, University of California Press's Principal Production Coordinator. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.
