Submissions and Editorial Correspondence:

Gastronomica is an international, interdisciplinary journal, publishing work that presents original research and writing which advances our understanding and appreciation of the most pressing topics in the world of food, and invites critical debate and commentary across diverse audiences around the world. We therefore welcome submissions from all disciplines and perspectives, and encourage language that is clear, vivid, and free from specialized jargon—whether for Scholarly, Food Phenomena, or Review submissions.

Articles should generally not exceed 8,000 words. Each submission should be accompanied by a cover letter with the author’s name, address, phone number, and e-mail address, as well as a brief biographical statement, an abstract, and five to six keywords. Research articles to be considered for publication are refereed anonymously, and the author’s name should appear only on the cover sheet. Manuscripts must be prepared according to the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style, with double-spaced notes at the end of the text. References should be formatted according to the Chicago Style of (Author date, page) for in-text citations and a References list following the endnotes.

Queries are welcome. Address all editorial correspondence and submissions to gastrome@ucpress.edu or gastro-reviews@ucpress.edu for reviews.
