Submissions

The Journal of Musicology welcomes articles in all areas of musical scholarship, including history, criticism, analysis, and performance practice. The Journal does not regularly publish reviews, but does invite proposals for review essays on important books, music editions, and conference reports. All articles are published in English, but submissions in other languages will be considered. Submissions should be sent in electronic form (as an attachment to an e-mail message) to submissions@journalofmusicology.org. Please include an abstract and complete contact information (e-mail, telephone, and postal address). Full instructions, including a postal address for materials that cannot be sent electronically, are at www.journalofmusicology.org.

About the Authors

Lawrence F. Bernstein, the Karen and Gary Rose Term Professor of Music at the University of Pennsylvania, works primarily on the Renaissance chanson and on the music of Ockeghem and Josquin. He served as Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of the American Musicological Society and as founding editor of the AMS Studies in Music.

L. Poundie Burstein is Associate Professor at Hunter College and the Graduate Center of the City University of New York. He also teaches music analysis at the Mannes College of Music and has worked extensively as a free-lance pianist for comedy improvisation groups in New York City.

Deborah Kauffman is Associate Professor of Music History and Literature at the University of Northern Colorado. Her work has been published in several journals, including Early Music and Performance Practice Review, and she is the author of the monograph Petits motets from the Maison royale de Saint-Louis at Saint-Cyr (A-R Editions, 2001). She serves as the editor of the Journal of Musicological Research.
