SUBMISSIONS

The Journal of Musicology welcomes articles in all areas of musical scholarship, including history, criticism, analysis, and performance practice. The Journal does not regularly publish reviews, but does invite proposals for review essays on important books, music editions, and conference reports. All articles are published in English, but submissions in other languages will be considered. Submissions should be sent in electronic form (as an attachment to an e-mail message) to submissions@journalofmusicology.org. Please include an abstract and complete contact information (e-mail, telephone, and postal address). Full instructions, including a postal address for materials that cannot be sent electronically, are at www.journalofmusicology.org.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Stephen A. Crist is chair of the Department of Music at Emory University, where he teaches music history. His principal areas of research include the music of Johann Sebastian Bach, jazz in the 1950s and 1960s, and sixteenth-century Lutheran hymnody.

Robert Fallon is Assistant Professor of Musicology at Carnegie Mellon University. He has written widely on Olivier Messiaen, most recently in Messiaen Studies (Cambridge University Press, 2007) and Tempo (October 2008). In 2004, the American Musicological Society awarded him the Paul A. Pisk Prize.

Lisa Jakelski is presently completing her PhD at the University of California, Berkeley, where she is writing a dissertation on late twentieth-century Polish music and the Warsaw Autumn Festival. In July 2009 she will become Assistant Professor of Musicology in the Eastman School of Music at the University of Rochester.

Phil Ford is Assistant Professor of Musicology at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. His work on Cold War American popular music and counter-cultural intellectual history has appeared in the Musical Quarterly, Jazz Perspectives, the Journal of Musicological Research, and Representations.
