SUBMISSIONS

The Journal of Musicology welcomes articles in all areas of musical scholarship, including history, criticism, analysis, and performance practice. The Journal does not regularly publish reviews, but does invite proposals for review essays on important books, music editions, and conference reports. All articles are published in English. Submissions should be sent in electronic form (as an attachment to an e-mail message) to submissions@journalofmusicology.org. Please include an abstract and complete contact information (e-mail, telephone, and postal address). Full instructions, including a postal address for materials that cannot be sent electronically, are at www.journalofmusicology.org.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Christopher Bruhn is assistant professor of music history at Denison University. He holds a PhD in musicology from the Graduate Center of the City University of New York, where he also received a certificate in American Studies. His research interests focus on the intersections between music, literature, and philosophy.

Valeria De Lucca earned her PhD from Princeton University and is currently a British Academy postdoctoral fellow in music at the University of Southampton (UK). Her work focuses on music patronage, opera, and aspects of opera staging in early modern Italy.

Richard Taruskin is Class of 1955 Professor of Music at the University of California at Berkeley and the author of the Oxford History of Western Music.
