SUBMISSIONS

The Journal of Musicology welcomes articles in all areas of musical scholarship, including history, criticism, analysis, and performance practice. The Journal does not regularly publish reviews, but does invite proposals for review essays on important books, music editions, and conference reports. All articles are published in English. Submissions should be sent in electronic form (as an attachment to an e-mail message) to submissions@journalofmusicology.org. Please include an abstract and complete contact information (e-mail, telephone, and postal address). Full instructions, including a postal address for materials that cannot be sent electronically, are at www.journalofmusicology.org.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Matthew Peattie is an assistant professor of musicology at the College-Conservatory of Music (CCM) at the University of Cincinnati. He has written about issues of transcription and Beneventan chant, most recently in Plainsong and Medieval Music. Peattie has particular interests in performance practice, and he directs the CCM Early Music Lab and Ensemble 1521.

Valerio Morucci is a doctoral candidate at the University of California, Davis. His research interests focus on Renaissance music, particularly on sixteenth-century patronage, source study, and music theory. His recent publications include articles for Musica Disciplina (2010) and Acta Musicologica (forthcoming 2012).

Yoel Greenberg is a lecturer in the department of music at Bar-Ilan University and a member of the Carmel String Quartet. He earned his PhD in musicology at Hebrew University with a thesis in which he developed a system-oriented approach to the rise of sonata form, and he has conducted postdoctoral research at Princeton University in the Department of Music and the Department of Ecology and Evolutionary biology.
