

JOURNAL OF POPULAR MUSIC STUDIES

VOLUME 32 NUMBER 2 JUNE 2020

SPECIAL ISSUE: UNCHARTED COUNTRY

EDITORS' NOTE

- Uncharted Country: New Voices and Perspectives in Country Music Studies 1
NADINE HUBBS AND FRANCESCA T. ROYSTER
-

AMPLIFIER

- You're My Country Music 11
KAREN PITTELMAN
 - Valerie June, Ghost Catcher 18
FRANCESCA T. ROYSTER
 - Thunder in the Heart: Following the Ache of Americana and Decoding the Queer Paul Clayton 28
CLAY KERRIGAN
 - Me, Hank Williams, and My Dad 42
JOE KADI
-

ARTICLES

- Ragtime Country: Rhythmically Recovering Country's Black Heritage 50
WAYNE MARSHALL
- "Pinned Against the Wall": Migration Narratives, Cultural Resonances, and Latinx Experiences in Appalachian Music 63
SOPHIA M. ENRIQUEZ

- Freddy Fender's Blackbrown Country Ecologies 77
DEBORAH R. VARGAS
- Sing Me Back Home: Country Music and Radical Community Organizing in Uptown Chicago 95
JESSE MONTGOMERY
- The Racial Limitations of Country-Soul Crossover in Bobby Womack's BW Goes C&W, 1976 112
CHELSEA BURNS
- Redneck Chic: Race and the Country Music Industry in the 1970s 128
AMANDA MARIE MARTINEZ
- She's A Country Girl All Right: Rhiannon Giddens's Powerful Reclamation of Country Culture 144
KIMBERLY MACK
- Remapping Country Music in the Pacific: Country Music and Masculinities in Post-War Japan, 1945–56 162
MARI NAGATOMI
- “New Life” into Old Sounds: Listening to Simone Schmidt's Audible Songs from Rockwood 178
RYAN SHUVERA
- The Valley of the Dry Bones: The Presence and Perseverance of Jews, Judaism, and Jewishness in Country Music and Bluegrass 191
SHIRLI BRAUTBAR, PETER LA CHAPPELLE AND JESSICA HUTCHINGS
- “Tennessee Whiskey” and the Politics of Harmony 214
JOCELYN R. NEAL

CONTRIBUTORS' NOTES 238