

THE PUBLIC HISTORIAN

---

A Journal of Public History

---

VOLUME 44    MAY 2022    NUMBER 2

---

Editor's Corner: War and Memory 5

Sarah H. Case

---

ARTS AND PUBLIC HISTORY

Memorializing Conflict and History in South Thailand through Museums, Art, and Poetry 7

Mala Rajo Sathian

---

REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

The Squat-Museum: Public Urban History in Autonomous Spaces:
The Hamburger Gängeviertel 29

Stephan Fender

The People's Centenary? Public History, Remembering and Forgetting in Britain's
First World War Centenary 56

Lucy Noakes and James Wallis

Making Public Memory: The Public History of the Spanish Civil War and the Francoist Dictatorship in the Basque Country (1936–2015) 82

Unai Belaustegi and Xabier Irujo

New Stories to Tell: An Interdisciplinary Approach to Holocaust Oral History 96

Adina Jocelyn Langer and Sandra Kollen Ghizoni

---

Exhibition Reviews

Make Good the Promises: Reconstruction and Its Legacies, Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture, Washington, DC 113

Reviewed by Rebecca Bush

Care & Custody: Past Responses to Mental Health, National Library of Medicine 117

Reviewed by Jessica Martucci

Bethlehem Steel Legacy Project, Baltimore Museum of Industry, Baltimore,
Maryland, in partnership with Tradepoint Atlantic 122

Reviewed by Morgan Miller-Scarborough

---

MEDIA REVIEWS

Tadaima 2021: A Community Virtual Pilgrimage, Japanese American Memorial Pilgrimages (JAMP) in partnership with the National Park Service 127

Reviewed by Elizabeth Doi

“Townsend’s” YouTube Channel 129

Reviewed by Tyler Rudd Putman

---

Book Reviews

Terrorism in American Memory: Memorials, Museums, and Architecture in the Post-9/11 Era by Marita Sturken 134

Reviewed by Edward T. Linenthal

Curating America’s Painful Past: Memory, Museums, and the National Imagination by Tim Gruenewald 136

Reviewed by Samantha Blair Schwartz

Utopian Ruins: A Memorial Museum of the Mao Era by Jie Li 138

Reviewed by James Flath

Pennhurst and the Struggle for Disability Rights edited by Dennis B. Downey and James W. Conroy 140

Reviewed by Steven Noll